

AWARD ANNOUNCEMENT

DODGE RECENTLY RECOGNIZED AT UNIGROUP CONVENTION

2022 HOUSEHOLD GOODS MEMBER OF THE YEAR AWARD WINNER

UniGroup, the parent company of recognized brands Mayflower Transit and United Van Lines, presented its first-ever Household Goods Member of the Year Award to Dodge Moving and Storage. Dodge, located in St. Louis, Missouri, was recognized out of more than 200 members at UniGroup's Convention in Huntington Beach, California. Dodge has been a leader in the transportation industry for 100 years providing extraordinary services, excelling in safety, service, growth and UniGroup network support.

The Household Good Member of the Year award takes into consideration the standard measures of excellence such as on-time delivery, claims ratio and revenue growth. But, also includes factors such as network participation, support and engagement.

Families move for a variety of reasons whether it's new jobs, to be closer to loved ones or for new experiences. No matter the reason, UniGroup members representing United Van Lines and Mayflower Transit strive to ease their customers' stress, make the move seamless and provide service excellence. Dodge has proven even through difficult times such as the pandemic and economic uncertainty, that it's still possible to excel in these areas.

The award was accepted by Dodge Executive Vice President/COO Tom Linhares and Chief Financial Officer Alex Clerc. "The Dodge team is energized and appreciative of the award recognition as the UniGroup Member of the Year, household goods," Tom said. "Our company has benefited greatly from our agency partners and the entire UniGroup network. We are certain the best is yet to come as we are now all aligned and working together as a cooperative. The service Dodge delivers every day to our customers is a direct result of the excellence of the agent network and the support of UniGroup. This recognition is a validation of our entire team here at Dodge. Thank you for your passion and relentless focus on serving the customer!"
